This Friday evening and Saturday the women of our parish will be on their Cornerstone Retreat. We keep them in prayer that God's love and grace will touch their lives with renewed strength and gifts.

Thanks to our bulletin advertisers

Our bulletin is made possible through the generous support of our advertisers on the last 2 pages of each bulletin. Many of these sponsors are parishioners or local business owners. We thank them for their support of St. James and encourage you to consider patronizing them and letting them know that you have seen their ad in our bulletin.

Blessings,
Msgr. Mike

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

The teachers were excited to begin this week in November with nothing to focus on except school and academics.

After all the excitement of Harvest Festival and Halloween we embraced the calm.

This week we continued the 2nd round of STAR testing and are getting close to wrapping up the 1st trimester of the school year. Report Cards will be sent home in 2 weeks.

A Big Thank You to:

Alessandra Benitez: Ally created a beautiful mural on the wall of the TK classroom. How wonderful that our newest classroom includes the artwork of one of our students!

Audria Schwartz: Mrs. Schwartz shared her artistic talent and love of SJS by mentoring Ally as the two formed a team that created beauty and whimsy! We value your time and talent.

John Sullivan: John built a staircase for the TK classroom to create a library space for our littlest students. The talent and skill of one of our SJS graduates has enhanced the learning environment of the TK!

God Bless you,

Welcome Parents of Young Children!

Relax! God loves the wiggly little saints and we do too!

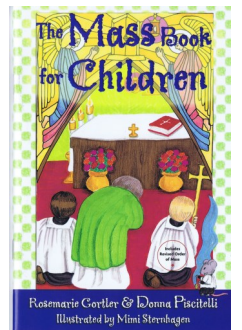

We understand how difficult it is to attend Mass with all the supplies a family with young children needs.

We want you and your children to feel welcomed here.

We encourage you to sit near the front so they can see what is going on. Please support these families with encouragement and smiles.

Look for these books in the back of the church for use during Mass.

Please return to the basket when done for others to use. They are available in the Gift Shop if you'd like to take them home with you. Welcome!

Rapid Response Network

Members of the St. James Social Justice Ministry (SJM) periodically contact our representatives and/or the federal government to comment on pending legislation or administrative actions that may impact segments of our society, especially those on the margins.

In one recent example members signed onto a letter from the US Conference of Catholic Bishops to the Administration, urging it to restore the Refugee Resettlement program. Issues that might be addressed include human trafficking, homelessness, immigration, environmental justice, and others.

In an effort to increase our voice, the SJM is initiating the Rapid Response Network. If the SJM becomes aware of an urgent or timely social issue, Network members will be notified by email and asked to sign a petition or send a draft letter (via host website). Participation in any notification is totally voluntary and private, and email addresses will not be used for any other purpose.

If you would like to be part of the Rapid Response Network, email Judy Pang, Social Justice Ministry chair, at jmpang@aol.com.

Thank you for your participation as a concerned Catholic in lending your voice to relevant issues of the day.

Gospel Meditation

“Some Saducees, those who deny that there is a resurrection, came forward and put this question to Jesus ...”

In this Sunday's Gospel, the Saducees avoid their real question. Is there a resurrection from the dead or not?

Rather than ask this question point blank, the Saducees try to prove their point through a roundabout, unrealistic scenario. Jesus cuts straight to the question behind the question, citing Scripture passages relating to the resurrection.

The Saducees are trying to trick Jesus.

While we may not intend to stump God, our doubts and questions may have more in common with the Saducees than we care to admit. Doubts are part and parcel of life in a fallen world. Still, there are different ways we can word our doubts to ourselves, God, and others. When we're struggling, truly struggling, about some article of faith, do we admit it? Or do we cloak it with other, obtuse questions to hide the nature of our concern?

Have you considered leaving the Church over the hypocrisy of some of her members and leaders?

Perhaps the real question is: “How can a place blessed by God and instituted by Christ have this evil in it?”

Can I reconcile with the concept that an institution has an admixture of good and bad?

What do I expect from others, from myself?

What responsibility do I have to try and remedy evil in an institution I'm part of?”

Perhaps you've wondered about the nature of romantic love, and if God is love, does He really care so much about the details of this particular scenario?

Perhaps the real question is: “Can my mind wrap around the concept of a God whose law seems — on the surface, in this situation — to make people unhappy?”

What is the relationship between the moral law and human flourishing?”

These aren't easy questions, but they are more honest ones. This week, don't be afraid of your deeper questions! Bring them to God, to someone you trust, and to yourself.

Catholic Q & A A Sainly Pilgrimage

- J. P. Alegria

Q: The Church calls Mary the patroness of humanity."

Believed to be the greatest of all Christian Saints, the events in her life are part of the history of salvation as foreshadowed in the Old Testament, and recorded in the New Testament, faithfully celebrated in liturgical feasts of the universal Church. What does our catechism, our Archbishop, and spiritual writer Matthew Kelly have to say about the light, the peace, and the role of Mary within God's divine plan?

A: The catechism presents Mary as wholly united with her son. "Mary's role in the Church is inseparable from her union with Christ and flows directly from it."

Archbishop Gomez wrote recently about Mary and Marian prayer such as the Rosary, (what Paul VI called, "an epitome of the whole Gospel."). The Archbishop called the rosary a prayer of the heart. "The rosary is the prayer of the saints, part of the secret of their sanctity...we need the rosary."

Kelly writes that the rosary is, "...a powerful prayer, it settles our hearts and minds, creating a peace that is rare and beautiful. It just works."

Mary—Mother of Christ, Mother of the Church.

Sunday School

At Sunday School, children meet other children, play games, sing songs, learn prayers and bible stories and engage in creative activities that enhance the lesson. They have a simple snack and some special celebrations. Sunday school participates in the Mass at Thanksgiving and Christmas and may also have the opportunity for small community service projects. Parents have the opportunity to participate in various ways, but can also enjoy Mass knowing their children are safe and happy engaging in a faith experience created just for them.

Sunday school began October 6th and continues until May 3rd and is held in the preschool classrooms. To be eligible for Sunday School, children must be potty trained and had to be 3 years old by Sept. 1st.

It's not too late to enroll; we have a limited number of spaces available at both 8 a.m. and 10 a.m.

Prayer After Communion

Receive, Lord, my entire freedom.
Accept the whole of my memory,
my intellect and my will.
Whatever I have or possess,
it was you who gave it to me;
I restore it to you in full,
and I surrender it completely to the guidance of your will.
Give me only love of you
together with your grace, and I am rich enough
and ask for nothing more.
Amen.
