Welcome!

Thank you for worshipping with us!

We are not complete without you!

Jesus said to the crowds:
“This is how it is with the kingdom of God;
it is as if a man were to scatter seed on the land
and would sleep and rise night and day
and through it all the seed would sprout and grow, he knows not how.

Of its own accord the land yields fruit,
first the blade, then the ear,
then the full grain in the ear.
And when the grain is ripe,
he wields the sickle at once,
for the harvest has come.” Mk. 4:26-29

Pastor's Letter

Honoring the men of our lives on Father's Day

Father's Day is a special day for us to remember and lift up the men of our parish.

It is a day for all the men in our community who nurture us, support us and guide us. Men who show by their examples the fruits of love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness and faithfulness.

Thank God for the dads who love unconditionally.

Thank you Lord for the gift of fatherhood.

-For fathers embracing their vocation that they may find courage and perseverance to balance work, family and faith in joy and sacrifice.

-For fathers around the world whose children are lost or suffering, that they may know that the God of compassion walks with them in their sorrow.

-For the special love of God as our Father when we needed Him most, to bring healing to men for whom we have difficult relationships with as fathers.

-For those men who have taken in others' children through adoption and foster care or mentoring, showing us that the love of God far extends beyond biological ties.

We thank you, Lord, for the men who have influenced our lives in so many ways. Continue to bless them and guide them and help them to know how important their gift of love is to us all. Fill them with the grace of your Holy Spirit as we lift our voices in your name, O heavenly Father in whom we adore. Amen.

To Our Graduates, Congratulations!

Congratulations to all of our Graduates!

We especially honor those graduating from universities, who have put together a 'lifetime' of education and are moving into careers.

To our high school graduates moving on to college and other trade careers, we pray that the foundation you have built of your lives with God's loves inspiring you may guide you through adulthood.

To our graduates from St. James and our other elementary schools moving on to high schools, we pray that these beginning experiences of freedom will be guided by the respect and love taught to you by your parents and enriched by God's love always abiding in you. And to our other graduates from Junior High, Kindergarten, TK and Preschool, may God's love continue to guide you as you experience the wonder of life and the gifts hidden in you waiting to be discovered.

Blessings,

Msgr. Mike and Fr. Thaddeus

Celebrating 25 years or Ordination

Bob and Patty Miller are celebrating their 25 year anniversary as a Deacon couple. Archbishop Trudeau was here to honor them with a special Mass and reception in Kavanagh Hall last Sunday. Our parish family has been blessed by their faith example and dedication to developing the spiritual growth of our community. Together they have led people to Christ through their work in ministry including RCIA and helping to complete the sacraments of initiation to the Catholic church. They have touched so many lives here! Be sure to thank them for their faithful service and reflect on whether you are also being called to the Diaconate. www.usccb.org/committees/clergy-consecrated-life-vocations/permanent-diaconate

Opportunities to Grow your Faith

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

Our Summer Family Days of Service with the parish's Feed the Needy program will be this Wed., June 19th, and July 10th. Please see the announcement in this bulletin for Summer Family Day of Service, where you will find more information and a link to sign up.

Our inaugural Summer Family Rosary Group will start in July. We will meet in Kavanagh Hall from 11-11:45am on Tuesday, July 23rd, July 30th, and August 6th, and members of the Medjugorje Prayer Group will assist our families in learning more about the Rosary.

While drop-ins are welcome, registration is encouraged so we have materials for all who attend. Contact the office to register.

Also, our Family Field Trip to the Dominguez Rancho Adobe has enough interest that we will hold tours led by Deacon Bob on both July 27th and August 3rd. The July 27th tour is now full. Please contact the Office of Religious Education at 310.379.3221 to register for the August 3rd tour. Reservations will be required since each tour is limited to 20 people.

Finally, we ask that you consider the gifts given to you by the Holy Spirit. Our programs in the Office of Religious Education are growing to serve the needs of our families and children here at St. James Parish, and we ask you to prayerfully consider if the Spirit calls you to join us.

Remember, just as there are many gifts of the Spirit, there are many ways to serve. We are here to help you discover how your gifts can help our parish become the community God intends us to be.

God bless!

If you have questions, please contact the Office of Religious Education at 310.379.3221.

God bless!

Andrea Sullivan,

Director of Religious Education

Interested in Becoming Catholic?

The Order of Christian Initiation (OCI), formerly the RCIA, is the process for adults who desire to join the Catholic faith. It is the process for an unbaptized person to be baptized into the church and for those baptized by another Christian denomination to enter into the Catholic Church. While coming to know Jesus and His invitation to become a disciple, the OCI process involves the journey of faith, formation and conversion. A person is introduced to the beliefs, life, liturgy, and apostolic work of the Catholic Church.

If you are interested in learning more or starting the OCI process in September, please contact:

EXPLORE HOW TO LIVE AS A CHRISTIAN
 IN THE MIDST OF A PAGAN CULTURE IN

First Corinthians

AN 11-PART BIBLE STUDY FEATURING
TIM GRAY

THE GREAT
 ADVENTURE

Tuesday Night Online Bible Study

The St. James Tuesday Night Bible Study is currently taking a break.

Please join us on June 25th when we begin our next course "First Corinthians: The Church and the Christian Community." The group will meet every Tuesday night at 7pm in Kavanagh Hall.

Please contact Donna Wilson dwilson94@gmail.com if you are interested in joining this study.

How Do I Live as a Christian in the Midst of a Pagan Culture?

If you page through Paul's first letter to the Corinthians, you will see that he addresses many of the same topics that appear in the news headlines today:

scandals,
 promiscuity,
 debates and controversies,
 and issues related to prosperity versus poverty.

Clearly, the struggles faced by the early Christians are in many ways similar to our own. Paul's messages to the Corinthians about divisions, immorality, persecution, and other trials offer much-needed wisdom for our own times.

First Corinthians: The Church and the Christian Community explores the key elements of the gospel message that Paul introduced to a new and growing Church.

Presenter Tim Gray examines Paul's advice for living an authentic Christian life in a pagan culture as well as his teachings about the nature of grace, the Church as the body of Christ, and the most powerful gift of all—the Eucharist.

This course is covered in 11 sessions, each includes a 30 minute video. Priests attend this bible study as their schedule allows. After the video, there's a question and answer opportunity.

The course is offered in person in Kavanagh Hall and is offered simultaneously via Zoom for those unable to attend in person.

Come, share and participate in our church community.

Topic: Lord, Hear our Prayer*"Great is the mystery of the faith!"*

That joyous pronouncement in Paragraph 2558 of The Catechism celebrates the Christian life, encouraging the faithful to: "Live in a vital, personal relationship with the living, true God."

Q: What does The Catechism teach about the nature of this vital, personal relationship?"

A: The Catechism declares:
"This relationship is prayer."

Q: What is prayer?"

A: The Catechism, as we know, presents many teachings about the forms and the workings of prayer. Paragraph 2559, in clear, aspirational and inspirational terms says,

"Prayer is the raising of one's mind and heart to God."

In keeping with that vital personal relationship with God, there is no one better to describe the essence of prayer than St. Therese of Lisieux, who wrote about prayer in terms of visceral splendor:

*"For me, prayer is a surge of the heart;
it is a simple look turned toward heaven,
it is a cry of recognition and of love,
embracing both trial and joy."*

A joyous pronouncement of prayer to a true living God. Part of the mystery of the faith.

Gospel Meditation— Father John Muir

My mother and father fell in love with each other rather quickly.

It was only a span of two months between their first meeting and quiet betrothal. They waited for a significant period of time before going public with the happy news.

It simply wasn't time. Love's strength and speed can sprout scandal in public. Until the big reveal, they gave the outside world only little hints, gestures, and riddles.

Something like this — but even more wonderful — is at play when Mark says of Jesus, "he did not speak to them without a parable, but to his disciples in private he explained everything."

Jesus is the long-awaited messiah-king, but his identity as the Lord and Son of God is so new, surprising, and scandalous to human ears that the big reveal would have to wait. Thus, his parables are riddles, meant to conceal more than reveal. Even the disciples — who hear things explained directly — barely grasp what he is up to. It's only at the cross that Jesus' love for Israel and the world is explicitly revealed. Until then, much stays hidden and comes in riddles.

So it goes with us, too. I wonder at times why doesn't the Lord just speak to us directly in prayer about what we should do, or how to fix our problems.

Or why doesn't he reveal himself directly to powerful leaders who are slow to act?

Why does he allow life so often to be confounding, contradictory, and crazy?

Because it simply isn't time yet.

One glorious day, it will be.

Until then, he teaches us in riddles, and only sometimes explains them.
