Pastor's Letter

Hello beautiful children of God!

I am overjoyed to be assigned as pastor of St James Catholic Church!

The Masses this past weekend were a true blessing for me, and I hope they were for you as well.

It is quite a shock to the system to move from a community of 500 registered families (Our Lady of Malibu) to one that has 3,800 families.

I hope to know many of your names as we journey forward, but please be patient with me if I have to ask repeatedly.

I pray that many more families are added to the Saint James community as we begin to witness to Christ's love through the sharing of our stories with our families, friends, coworkers, and classmates.

As parishioners exited the church, I was told that my story was their story. Imagine how many other need to hear your story of how God is transforming your life.

I've heard it said many times that religion is taboo in conversation, but the Good News of God's love, mercy, and forgiveness resonates within every heart.

Always remember to share your story with compassion and a desire for the good of the other.

I am so excited to see where our walk together will lead!!!

God bless,

Fr. Matt

and Veneration of Padre Pio Relic

Breakfast: after Mass
10:30 to Noon Presentation / Q&A

Be inspired by the life of this priest and Capuchin Friar who for fifty years carried in his own body the Five Wounds of Jesus.

He lived a supernatural life with miracles, bilocation and mystical gifts.

He spent fifteen hours a day hearing confessions and touched the lives of thousands of people. He died only in 1968 so we have an abundance of personal testimonies, photographic and medical evidence for his life. To this day he answers prayers with the scent of roses.

Breakfast : Catered by Danny Maricich

But not sure for what.

We get it.

We've been there.

Now we are here.

Maybe God is calling you, too.

Just as you are.

Ways to prevent children
drowning deaths

Drowning is the second leading cause of accidental death for children 5-14 years old, and every year in the United States there are more than 4,000 drowning deaths, according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). Preventing unsupervised access to water, providing constant, active adult supervision and knowing how to swim are critical layers of protection to help prevent drowning. Interested in Becoming Catholic?

The Order of Christian Initiation (OCI), formerly the RCIA, is the process for adults who desire to join the Catholic faith. It is the process for an unbaptized person to be baptized into the church and for those baptized by another Christian denomination to enter into the Catholic Church. While coming to know Jesus and His invitation to become a disciple, the OCI process involves the journey of faith, formation and conversion. A person is introduced to the beliefs, life, liturgy, and apostolic work of the Catholic Church.

If you are interested in learning more or starting the OCI process in September, please contact:

Ben Aranda at 310.427.5775 or email:

Parents and Guardians, if you have a child who is finishing Kindergarten, now is the time to plan for beginning their preparation for First Communion.

Typically, children and families begin preparation in First Grade, and children receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation and the Eucharist in Second Grade.

For families with older children, it is not too late to begin the process.

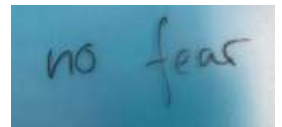

Please contact the Office of Religious Education at 310.379.3221 or at religioused@stjamesparish.org so that we can answer any questions you may have.

Would You Like to Complete Your Sacraments?

Are you a baptized Catholic, but have not yet received the Sacrament of Confirmation? If so, contact us about becoming a candidate to complete your Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation). If you have not received your First Holy Communion, this class will prepare you to do that as well. Our Fall series of classes is scheduled to begin in early September, 2024.

Topic: Works of Charity

At a recent Mass in this liturgical period of, (fittingly,) Ordinary Time, the Priest called on the Lord to:

"Order our days in your peace."

Q: How can we become more active, caring factors of faith in promoting peace among one another?

A: We are inspired to acts of mercy by Trinitarian example, Scripture, and the dynamics of the Holy Mass. Our Pastoral exemplars also offer spiritual guidance. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops reminds that:

*"We must tell the story of human needs...
Let us celebrate our tradition of service.
The "new commandment" of charity
unites love of God with love of neighbor;
it bridges Old and New Testaments..."*

Pope Francis said that the message is clear:

"Jesus gives life even when it seems that all hope has gone."

Father Thaddeus and Father Remi's Congregation of Sons of Mary Mother of Mercy is an example of an active charism that is bearing witness to the mercy of God.

Their mission appeal echoes The Catechism of the Catholic Church which teaches that:

"Charity is the greatest social commandment... it inspires a life of self-giving."

So we continue, working to order our days in the peace and compassion of the Lord, and to share in the public ministry from that long ago day when Jesus read from Isaiah:

*"The spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me
to bring glad tidings to the poor."*

Gospel Meditation— Father John Muir

Once I asked a fallen-away Catholic friend of mine what he remembered about the parish priest from his youth.

He said, "He was a gentle, nice guy. Kind of vanilla. Kept to himself." It struck me that he, perhaps like many, perceive Catholic priests as the following: lonely, harmless, and self-sufficient.

As a challenge both to this perception (accurate or not) and to us priests who perhaps feel a pull in that uninspiring direction, stands the mighty image of what we see in the Gospel this Sunday.

Jesus sent out his apostles, "two-by-two, with power over demons, and without money belts."

Two-by-two: they enjoyed deep fellowship and brotherhood.

Power over demons: they were anything but harmless. These men wielded enormous power against evil.

Without money belts: they were not self-sufficient. They needed others to help them. Not lonely, but in community. Not harmless but armed with massive spiritual energy. Not self-sufficient, but poor and in need of help.

This is a challenge to me, and perhaps to all of us, living in a rich, secularized, and individualized culture.

Do I embrace my priestly ministry in deep fellowship with other priests?

Do I speak and act boldly to drive out evil where it is found?

Do I live poorly and simply, trusting in the help of those around me even for basic needs?

The fruitfulness of priestly ministry largely depends on these three traits. Let's pray for all priests — and, by extension, all of us Christians — to live more like Jesus' communal, poor, and powerful apostles.
