Pastor's Letter

Hello beautiful children of God!

I am overjoyed to be assigned as pastor of St James Catholic Church!

The Masses this past weekend were a true blessing for me, and I hope they were for you as well.

It is quite a shock to the system to move from a community of 500 registered families (Our Lady of Malibu) to one that has 3,800 families.

I hope to know many of your names as we journey forward, but please be patient with me if I have to ask repeatedly.

I pray that many more families are added to the Saint James community as we begin to witness to Christ's love through the sharing of our stories with our families, friends, coworkers, and classmates.

As parishioners exited the church, I was told that my story was their story. Imagine how many other need to hear your story of how God is transforming your life.

I've heard it said many times that religion is taboo in conversation, but the Good News of God's love, mercy, and forgiveness resonates within every heart.

Always remember to share your story with compassion and a desire for the good of the other.

I am so excited to see where our walk together will lead!!!

God bless,

Fr. Matt

email: FrMatt@StJamesParish.Org

To Our Dear St. James Parishioners:

We would like to take this opportunity to thank each and every one of you who has expressed congratulations and gratitude for our 25 years of service as a Deacon Couple at St. James.

We are especially grateful to the many individuals who volunteered to provide a wonderful celebration following the 12 Noon Mass on Sunday, June 9. We are very appreciative that Bishop Marc Trudeau took time from his busy schedule to join us for Mass. There are too many to name here for fear that we will unintentionally leave someone out. You know who you are and we are so grateful for your efforts in making our celebration such a memorable event.

Service to others has been and will continue to be such a wonderful blessing for us.

We have had the honor to be involved in the lives of so many of you in various ways over the years. We look forward in the months and years ahead "to continue the praise of God" with each and every one of you.

Deacon Bob and Patty

First Communion Preparation

Parents and Guardians, if you have a child who is finishing Kindergarten, now is the time to plan for beginning their preparation for First Communion. Typically, children and families begin preparation in First Grade, and children receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation and the Eucharist in Second Grade. For families with older children, it is not too late to begin the process. Please contact the Office of Religious Education at 310.379.3221 or at religioused@stjamesparish.org so that we can answer any questions you may have.

Here I am to worship,
 Here I am to bow down,
 Here I am to say that you are God.

and Veneration of Padre Pio Relic

Breakfast: after Mass
10:30 to Noon Presentation / Q&A

Be inspired by the life of this priest and Capuchin Friar who for fifty years carried in his own body the Five Wounds of Jesus.

He lived a supernatural life with miracles, bilocation and mystical gifts.

He spent fifteen hours a day hearing confessions and touched the lives of thousands of people. He died only in 1968 so we have an abundance of personal testimonies, photographic and medical evidence for his life. To this day he answers prayers with the scent of roses.

Breakfast : Catered by Danny Maricich

hash browns, bacon,
fresh fruit salad & freshly baked scones

Interested in Becoming Catholic?

The Order of Christian Initiation (OCI), formerly the RCIA, is the process for adults who desire to join the Catholic faith. It is the process for an unbaptized person to be baptized into the church and for those baptized by another Christian denomination to enter into the Catholic Church. While coming to know Jesus and His invitation to become a disciple, the OCI process involves the journey of faith, formation and conversion. A person is introduced to the beliefs, life, liturgy, and apostolic work of the Catholic Church.

If you are interested in learning more or starting the OCI process in September, please contact:

The Feast of St. James is July 25th

He is the son of Zebedee and Salome and brother of John the disciple. Saint James was one of Jesus' first disciples. James was fishing with his father and John the Apostle when Jesus came to the shores of the Sea of Galilee and called for the fisherman, who were unable to catch any fish that day, to dip their nets in the water once again.

When the fishermen followed Jesus' instructions, they found their nets full, and after emptying the fish on board, the boats nearly sank from their weight.

Later, James was one of only three called by Jesus to witness his Transfiguration. Our beautiful stained glass windows depict these scenes.

Topic: Holy Moments, Holy Lifetime

Recently marked was the Solemnity of The Nativity of Saint John the Baptist.

Q: How does that zealously holy prophet, "a voice crying out in the wilderness" continue to speak to us from across the centuries?

A: The Catechism of the Catholic Church indexes saints under the section on Holiness. The catechism teaches that the union of the whole Church in the Spirit may be strengthened by the fraternal charity of these "cloud of witness." The catechism teaches:

"Our communion with the saints joins us to Christ."

The catechism writes about the sanctity of the saints, reminding that "all Christians are called to holiness."

There are selections in the catechism about the saints as companions in prayer, examples and patrons of holiness, and the valuable intercession of saints. The role of the Holy Spirit in the activity of the saints is honored in the catechism.

In speaking of the martyrdom of St. John the Baptist, Pope John Paul II said:

*"John the Baptist is a model of faith,
a model of humility,
a model of uprightness and courage
in defending the truth,
for which he was prepared to pay in his person
even to the point of imprisonment and death."*

Reverend Alban Butler writes in his Lives Of The Saints about the ecclesiastical and historical importance of the saints, which we may come to know and marvel at, all in a spirit of aspirational, increasingly zealous personal faith.

Our own immutable voices continue to cry out in today's wilderness of challenges and uncertainty, still seeking that communion which joins the faithful closer to Jesus.

Burnout.

Recent studies suggest that roughly two-thirds of doctors and nurses have signs of it. You probably know what burnout is: long-term stress leading to emotional exhaustion and a lack of a sense of personal accomplishment. Burnout can threaten anyone who tries to seriously serve and love others. How does our faith inform this challenging experience, and how do we find refreshment?

The apostles face something like burnout this week in Mark 6. They are run down from their missionary work, and Jesus says,

"Come away by yourselves to a lonely place, and rest a while."

For them, and for us, it takes humility to intentionally rest. It means the world can go on without us. It stings our pride to admit God is necessary and we are not. Choosing to leave our good work to be with him — whatever the cost — is an act of humble faith. And that trust in God begins to revive us.

But there's more to it. Hilariously, Mark tells us that throngs of needy people find out where the apostles are going and arrive ahead of them. Imagine the exasperation of the burnt-out apostles.

"Can we please get a minute to ourselves?"

This is not healthy!" And Jesus seems to encourage the boundary violation by telling his frayed followers to feed the crowd. Look: once we move into humble rest, he calls us to more work, because we are made for love, not for rest. But Jesus does the vast bulk of the labor. He himself is the one who multiplies the small offering until everyone is satisfied. What finally gives our heart rest isn't more vacation time. It's experiencing the super abundant generosity of God for us and those whom we serve.
