

Welcome!

Thank you for worshipping with us!
We are not complete without you!

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up, knelt down before him, and asked him, “Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said to him, “You are lacking in one thing. Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.” At that statement his face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions.
Mk. 10:17, 21-22

Pastor's Letter

Hello Beautiful Children of God!

With the 2024 election less than a month away, the political rhetoric is heating up, which tends to drive people away from the voting booth. However, as Catholics citizens of this nation, it is important to be reminded that we are morally bound to vote. It is not an option or something nice to do, but a civic duty, similar to paying taxes.

Submission to authority and co-responsibility for the common good make it morally obligatory to pay taxes, to exercise the right to vote, and to defend one's country.

Catechism of the Catholic Church #2240

As we prepare to exercise our right to vote, it is important to form our consciences to vote in accord with God's will. What steps can we take to form our consciences as Catholics?

- 1) Begin by being open to the truth and what is right.
- 2) Study Sacred Scripture and the teaching of the Church.
- 3) Examine the facts and background information about various choices and be discerning in where we gather information.
- 4) Prayerfully reflect to discern the will of God
- 5) Seek the prudent advice and good example of trusted leaders and others to support and enlighten our conscience.
- 6) Learn about the authoritative teaching of the Church.
- 7) Pray for the gifts of the Holy Spirit to help us develop our conscience.
- 8) Regularly partake in an examination of conscience to hear God's voice in your life.

For more information on forming your conscience before you vote, please review the U.S. Catholic Bishop's guide "Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship," which we will place on the front page of our website through election day.

God bless,
Fr. Matt

Here, you will be nourished by the Word of God, encounter the profound reality of the sacraments, and be guided by the teachings of Holy Mother Church.

Be inspired by the life of this priest and Capuchin Friar who for fifty years carried in his own body the Five Wounds of Jesus. He lived a supernatural life with miracles, bilocation and mystical gifts.

He spent fifteen hours a day hearing confessions and touched the lives of thousands of people. He died only in 1968 so we have an abundance of personal testimonies, photographic and medical evidence for his life. To this day he answers prayers with the scent of roses.

Padre Pio: 13 facts about the saint to know and share By Alyssa Murphy

One of the most popular Catholic saints of the 20th century, St. Pio of Pietrelcina, commonly known as Padre Pio, was a Capuchin Franciscan friar, priest, and mystic. His tomb can be found in the Sanctuary of St. Mary Our Lady of Grace in San Giovanni Rotondo, Italy.

Padre Pio is known for his deep wisdom about prayer and peace, his stigmata, miraculous reports of his bilocation, being physically attacked by the devil, and mastering the spiritual life.

As the Church celebrates his feast day on Sept. 23, here's a look at 13 facts about St. Pio's life and faith.

1. Padre Pio was only 5 years old when he expressed a strong desire to serve God.

Born Francesco Forgione on May 25, 1887, in Pietrelcina, Italy, he served as an altar boy at his local parish. At the early age of 5, he consecrated himself to Jesus. By the age of 10, his family looked to see how he could become a Capuchin friar.

2. Padre Pio was only 15 when he entered the Capuchin Friars Minor as a novice.

Being a young teenager, Francesco was given the name Pio or Pius when he entered as a novice. He professed his solemn vows three years later. No stranger to suffering amid frail health throughout much of his studies, he was ordained a priest in 1910. He ascended the Gargano mountains to the rural friary outside of San Giovanni Rotondo in 1916. He remained there for more than 50 years, until his death on Sept. 23, 1968.

3. St. Pio received the visible wounds of Christ known as the stigmata, just like St. Francis of Assisi.

On Sept. 20, 1918, Padre Pio received the stigmata while praying in a church. The wounds remained visible on his body for the rest of his life. The wounds were on his hands, feet, and side, corresponding to the wounds suffered by Jesus during his crucifixion.

4. The blood from his stigmata smelled of floral perfume.

Referred to as the "odor of sanctity," the blood that came from Padre Pio's wounds is said to have smelled like perfume or as having a floral aroma. The trait has also been exhibited by other saints who manifested stigmata markings.

5. Padre Pio heard confessions 12 to 15 hours a day.

While listening to confessions, the saint would smell flowers as sins were confessed. Some penitents waited two weeks just to visit him in the confessional. Padre Pio could also read the hearts of penitents, reminding them of sins that were forgotten or omitted.

The saint once said: "Confession is the soul's bath. You must go at least once a week. I do not want souls to stay away from confession more than a week. Even a clean and unoccupied room gathers dust; return after a week, and you will see that it needs dusting again!"

6. Padre Pio suffered attacks from the devil on a consistent basis.

From a young age, Padre Pio was blessed with heavenly visions, but he also experienced spiritual warfare, including attacks of the devil.

In a book written by Father Gabriele Amorth on Padre Pio, the famous exorcist of Rome said: "The great and constant struggle in the life of the saint was against the enemies of God and souls, those demons who sought to capture his soul."

Amorth continued: “The devil appeared to him under many different forms: as a big black cat, wild and threatening, or as a repulsive animal, in the clear intention to frighten him; under the appearance of naked and provocative young girls who danced obscene dances, obviously to test the chastity of the young priest. However, the worst was when the devil took on the appearance of his spiritual director, or posed as Jesus, the Virgin Mary, or St. Francis.”

7. He had the gift of bilocation, meaning that he could be in more than one place at a time.

Multiple eyewitness accounts attest to the ability of Padre Pio to be in multiple places at once. Fellow friars remember seeing him in prayer outside when they knew he was still in his room. Some accounts come from others who claim to have seen him on different continents all over the world.

As to how Padre Pio experienced such feats, the closest he ever came to an explanation of bilocation was to say that it occurred “by an extension of his personality.”

8. A sighting of a “flying friar” kept war planes from bombing Padre Pio’s town during World War II.

Among the most remarkable of the documented cases of bilocation was Padre Pio’s appearance in the air over San Giovanni Rotondo during World War II. While southern Italy remained in Nazi hands, American bombers were given the job of attacking the city of San Giovanni Rotondo. However, when they appeared over the city and prepared to unload their munitions, a brown-robed friar appeared before their aircraft. All attempts to release the bombs failed. In this way, Padre Pio kept his promise to the citizens that their town would be spared. Later on, when an American airbase was established at Foggia a few miles away, one of the pilots of this incident visited the friary and found, to his surprise, the friar he had seen in the air that day over San Giovanni.

9. Before dying at the age of 81, all his wounds healed without scars, just as he had foretold they would 50 years prior.

A doctor examining the saint’s body who was present when he was dying observed that the wounds of the stigmata were completely healed, without any trace or scar. Padre Pio’s body was placed in a coffin in the church of the monastery to allow pilgrims to visit and pray.

10. Pilgrims can visit the rooms in which Padre Pio lived.

All the cells where Padre Pio lived in Italy have been outfitted with vintage furnishings to make them look exactly like they were in the early 20th century. Each site also boasts a small museum with relics and artifacts from his life.

11. Many miracles have been attributed to Padre Pio.

Several miracles have been attributed to the saint’s intercession, including the story of Gemma di Giorgio, a little girl who visited Padre Pio. Born blind without pupils in either eye, she miraculously regained her sight after visiting him. One truly miraculous factor about her healing was that, although she could see, she still lacked pupils. Another miracle was chronicled on EWTN.

12. He established a hospital.

Living a life of suffering, made difficult by physical pain and sickness, Padre Pio was able to build a hospital with the help of generous sponsors. Casa Sollievo della Sofferenza, which means “Home for the Relief of the Suffering,” was inaugurated on May 5, 1956. The hospital sits atop a hill overlooking San Giovanni Rotondo. Starting with only about 250 beds and just enough equipment, the hospital is now known for its state-of-the-art facilities and services.

13. Even before his death on Sept. 23, 1968, Padre Pio reportedly spent his last moments in prayer.

Beatified in 1999, St. Padre Pio was canonized on June 16, 2002, by the late pope St. John Paul II. He is known among Catholics as St. Pio of Pietrelcina. More than 500,000 attended his canonization.

Pope St. John Paul II: Prayer to Padre Pio

“Teach us, we ask you, humility of heart so we may be counted among the little ones of the Gospel, to whom the Father promised to reveal the mysteries of his kingdom.

Help us to pray without ceasing, certain that God knows what we need even before we ask him.

Obtain for us the eyes of faith that will be able to recognize right away in the poor and suffering the face of Jesus.

Sustain us in the hour of the combat and of the trial and, if we fall, make us experience the joy of the sacrament of forgiveness.

Grant us your tender devotion to Mary, the Mother of Jesus and our Mother.

Accompany us on our earthly pilgrimage toward the blessed homeland, where we hope to arrive in order to contemplate forever the glory of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.”

— Homily at the canonization of St. Pius of Pietrelcina, June 16, 2002

My Peace I Give You

Seeking a sense of inner peace while rushing amid a plethora of job and family obligations, a musician friend was momentarily flustered about a heavy schedule and the responsibilities within a particular stretch of hectic days. At that point, he could have been reminded to consider a musical notation about tempo:

"Andante con moto."

This Italian terminology of musical direction calls for a piece to be played at a steady walking pace, but with a hint of a power walk pace, infused by and driven with an underlying sense of energy.

This steady pace of up to 108 beats per minute gives the music a pace that allows the musician and the audience to appreciate the artistic and the emotional aspects of the composition.

Q: What does the Church teach about the emotional and spiritual aspects of our own "tempo" of faith that reflects that appreciation of a sense of inner peace?

A: The Church provides several points of directional grounding that maximize our own "songs" of saving faith, especially in times of tribulation and frustration:

*Pope Francis said peace is not the fruit of one's own abilities,

"...but a manifestation of the grace received from Christ."

The Pope said this as part of his Catechesis on The Beatitudes, not exactly a musical set of notations, but essential, guiding "directions" toward inner peace, nonetheless.

*Colossians 3 directs us to "...clothe ourselves with patience ..."

*Psalm 91 gives direction toward inner peace and steadiness in its descriptive imagery

"on eagles' wings."

*The USCCB says that

"inner peace is a gift from God that can be discovered through prayer."

(This would be a good reminder for that temporarily harried musician with all his challenges.)

The Bishops sum it up beautifully:

"The peace given in prayer draws us into God, quieting our anxieties and deepening wells of new energy."

In other words, have faith in God, pray, and keep moving with steady faithful energy; sort of

Andante con moto.

This week we hear of the man who inquires of Jesus how to obtain eternal life.

He rejects Jesus' invitation to sell his goods, give to the poor, and follow Jesus. Mark tells us this devastatingly sad line,

"At this saying, his countenance fell and he went away sorrowful; for he had great possessions" (Mark 10:22).

The man's heart wasn't centered on Jesus, but on his possessions. Perhaps Jesus intuited this. Now, we don't know if Jesus intended to actually make him go through with it, like God's call to test Abraham's willingness to sacrifice Isaac. But sadly, in this case the willingness was not there to entrust everything to Jesus. And this made the man deeply sad.

For most of us, the literal dispossessing of our goods is not our call. But as Christians, a consistent renouncing of them is. This week, especially if you're noticing a persisting sadness, I invite you to hear Jesus calling you to acknowledge that none of your possessions are finally yours.

They are God's and on loan to you. We get so addicted to that stuffy and sad word, "mine." At Mass, we rehearse this attitude of joyful detachment by giving bread, wine, and money to the Lord, as if to say,

"Lord, all I have is yours."

And what we get back is a sadness-defeating joy beyond all description:

knowing that He is ours, and we are His.

What possessions are pre-occupying you at the moment?

Write them down. Intentionally offer them to the Lord at the next Mass you attend.
