Pastor's Letter

Hello Beautiful Children of God!

The lyrics of "O Come, O Come Emmanuel" echo throughout our Advent journey.

The song retells the story of the Israelite community who "mourns in lonely exile" in Babylon, and longs to be free to return to their homeland in Jerusalem. Our Gospel for this Second Sunday in Advent (Lk 3:1-6) quotes from the Prophet Isaiah that Israel will indeed be free if only they repent and "make straight the way of the Lord." History tells us that the Israelites did return to Jerusalem, but their hearts still wavered.

In that same Gospel, we are introduced to the figure of John the Baptist, who is the "voice crying out in the desert" to prepare the way of the Lord. John preached from the desert banks of the Jordan River, which means that Israel was home physically, but not spiritually.

Therefore, John proclaims a baptism of repentance to help them complete their spiritual journey home to the Lord.

After sharing my vocation story with many people and recounting the twenty years I spent away from Christ and His Church, a great number of people share that they have been away for a considerable amount of time and have no idea how to return.

Well, my dear friends, the answer is simple...repent.

One need only to cross the threshold of the church and go directly to the confessional to return home. It is in the mercy seat of the confessional that we encounter God's forgiveness and love.

Every Advent season reminds us to seize this opportunity to be freed from our sins through the sacrament of Reconciliation.

We will host a Community Penance Service at St James on Tuesday, December 17th at 7pm where 10-12 priests from the local area will hear individual confessions.

Also, our parish offers the sacrament of reconciliation every Saturday night from 4-5pm or by appointment.

I encourage our entire community to avail yourselves to this precious gift of God's grace.

God bless,
Fr. Matt

Legion of Mary—Meets Every Saturday at 9:30am in Room 6 of the Parish Center

I encourage you, my dear brothers and sisters in Christ, to deepen your devotion to our blessed Mother Mary as Legionaries.

We hope you consider becoming a member and join us!

The worldwide Legion of Mary has been called "a miracle of these modern times."

Cardinal Suenens wrote: "Today, two currents dominate the life of the Church: the Marian current and the apostolic current." These two currents meet and blend harmoniously in the Legion of Mary, which has been a providential instrument in the hands of Mary and the Church for the spread of the Kingdom of God on earth.

Mary Mother of Mercy – Intercede for us.

Fr. Thaddeus Agbasonu (SMMM)

Maybe you grew up Catholic.
 Maybe you think of yourself as Catholic.
 Maybe you haven't been to church in awhile.
 Or you are worried that you won't be welcomed here.
 And maybe it feels awkward and scary
 to take that first step..

Questions.
 Doubts.
 Yearning.
 But not sure for what.

We get it.
 We've been there.
 Now we are here.

Maybe God is calling you, too.
 Just as you are.
 Welcome home.

OCI Invitation

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I extend to you an invitation to embark on a journey of faith and discovery in the sacred mystery of Christ's Church.

The Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCI) offers a path of encounter with the living God, who calls each of us to communion with Him through the sacraments and the fullness of truth found in the Catholic Church.

In these times, when many seek answers to life's deepest questions, the Church stands as a beacon of light, offering the eternal wisdom of Christ's Gospel and the rich heritage of faith handed down through the ages.

To those who are drawn to know Christ more fully and to enter into the life of the Church, the OCI is a place of grace where you will be accompanied by fellow parishioners who have already answered the call to discipleship.

Here, you will be nourished by the Word of God, encounter the profound reality of the sacraments, and be guided by the teachings of Holy Mother Church.

This is not merely a program of instruction but a spiritual pilgrimage into the heart of the Church, where the saving love of Christ is made present. I encourage you, dear friends, to respond to this call with open hearts.

Whether you are discerning your place within the Church or have already begun to sense God's gentle invitation, the OCI offers a space of prayerful reflection and growth in faith.

What starts as a spark of curiosity may grow into the flame of a life lived in Christ.

May the Lord guide you as you seek to know Him more deeply, and may you find in the Church the true home of your soul.

For more information, please contact the parish office or me directly at OCI@Stjamesparish.org

Together, let us walk this sacred path toward Christ, the source of all truth and life.

Yours In Christ,

Ben Aranda, Director of OCI

A Call to Hope

Q: What is Advent?

A: The Catechism describes the liturgy of Advent as the time when the Church makes present "the ancient expectancy of the Messiah." The Bishops remind us that it's a time of preparation, "directing our hearts and minds to Christ's second coming." This year Advent is from Sunday December 1 to Tuesday the 24th. The word Advent is from the Latin, "ad-venire" or, "to come to."

The USCCB also teaches about Advent songs of theology that are sung with the repeated use of the imperative "Come!" an embodiment of the longing of all for the Divine Messiah. The songs are known as O Antiphons. Some of the titles of these songs are: O King Of All Nations; O Emmanuel Our King. O Key of David. Pope Benedict XVI wrote: "Advent is a time to understand God's presence, a time to learn from Mary, the Woman of Advent; a time to live out our faith."

Pope Francis: "On the first Sunday of Advent we should awaken from our slumber and to always be aware of the presence of God and to welcome Him in our daily lives. Invite God to draw close during the new liturgical year."

Advent is an incessant call to hope."

As in Lenten days we see the clergy at Advent in vestments of purple,(except the Third Sunday when Rose is the color); purple being the color of penance and preparation.

St. Augustine, quoted in Latin: "Timeo Iesum transeuntem" "I fear that Jesus will pass by me unnoticed."

The Catholic News Agency says that when we are distracted by many vain things we may indeed lose sight of what is essential.

Advent, then finds us amid the stillness, listening for the word of God that directs our hearts and minds to respond to that ancient, incessant call of hope. His word at Advent:

"To all, I say, be watchful."

Sacramental Confession

No sin is new to him.

No wrongdoing too great.

Come to Confession and experience the cleansing power of God's love.

Saturday from 4-5 pm in Church or by calling the office for an appointment.

"Lord, wash away my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin."

In the year 1995, in the seventeenth year of my life, when Fife Symington was governor of Arizona, Bill Clinton was president of the United States, Chuck Keiffer was pastor of St. Theresa parish in Phoenix, Arizona, and Ron and Mary were my parents, the word of God came to my youth minister Eric and through him I started to see the salvation of God. Soon, Christ came into my life never to leave. I'm thankful beyond words.

Why am I being so specific, you ask?

Because in the Gospel this week we hear the specific names of people holding civic and religious authority in first century Palestine when "the word of God came to John the Baptist:" Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate, Herod, Philip, Lysanias, Annas, Caiaphas, and Zechariah. All this is meant to help us see that God breaks into our history, into real human events. Jesus is no mere myth. He is the Word-which-breaks-in, in concrete moments, you might say. And now we anticipate his coming once again in our specific situations.

Advent challenge:

Name as many civic and religious leaders who are in authority currently in your life. Now, name who the potential John the Baptists may be.

A spouse?

A friend?

A podcaster?

A work colleague who brings God's word to you?

Spend a moment considering that this comprises the concrete, historical setting into which Christ wishes to come. Then, with these specifics in mind, pray:

"Come, Lord Jesus. Come."

Offering Mass for a special intention is a long standing tradition in the Catholic Church. Special graces are obtained for whom the Mass is said. Masses are offered for many reasons, for special intentions, in remembrance for someone who is deceased, or in honor of a birthday or anniversary.

If you would like to have a Mass said for someone, please visit the Parish Office. We will help you with the dates and times which are available. We have Mass cards that you can send to whomever you choose as a remembrance. The monetary offering signifies the sacrificial nature of giving of something of yourself.

The Mass intentions for the upcoming week are posted in the Parish Bulletin and announced and prayed for at the selected date and time of the Mass.
