Pastor's Letter

Hello Beautiful Children of God!

On this Third Sunday of Advent, otherwise known as Guadete Sunday, our hearts are filled with joy. Guadete is the Latin word for rejoice, which is the theme of Zephaniah's prophecy in our first reading.

Why does he implore us to rejoice?

According to the prophecy, the "mighty Lord is in our midst" as a savior. The savior has "turned back our enemies and remove his judgment against us." This is indeed cause for rejoicing!

However, Zephaniah preached to the people of God in 600BC, which meant that the promised savior was still 600 years away. That is why the Israelites hearts are "filled with expectation" at the thought that John the Baptist might be the long-awaited Messiah. John was different. He wore strange clothing, ate a strange diet, and preached a less than soothing message. One would think that few would pay attention to such a figure, but the Gospels tell us that people were coming from all over Judea to listen to him and receive a baptism of repentance.

Why the need for repentance?

Just as John was the forerunner of Jesus' earthly ministry, repentance prepares us for God's great work of salvation. The fact that so many yearned to hear John's preaching tells us that human heart has a deeper hunger for God and His truth. In today's Gospel, John encourages us sinners to put their lives in right order by orienting our lives according to God's will.

Are we ready and willing to turn away from sin and turn toward God during our Advent journey?

Let us heed Zephaniah's prophecy that our Savior is indeed in our midst, and He comes to us in the sacrament of reconciliation to restore our relationship with the Father. Through this sacrament of mercy, Jesus turns away our enemy (sin) and removes his judgment against us. During this Advent season, we are encouraged to repent from our sins, so I would like to invite the St James community to our parish

The retreat and on-going Cornerstone brotherhood have been life-changing for me. The 26 hour weekend investment in myself has given me a greater sense of calm, community, and closeness to my faith. No matter where you are in your life, or your faith journey, you will find meaning and purpose in attending the retreat. Come join us."

OCI Invitation

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I extend to you an invitation to embark on a journey of faith and discovery in the sacred mystery of Christ's Church.

The Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCI) offers a path of encounter with the living God, who calls each of us to communion with Him through the sacraments and the fullness of truth found in the Catholic Church.

In these times, when many seek answers to life's deepest questions, the Church stands as a beacon of light, offering the eternal wisdom of Christ's Gospel and the rich heritage of faith handed down through the ages.

To those who are drawn to know Christ more fully and to enter into the life of the Church, the OCI is a place of grace where you will be accompanied by fellow parishioners who have already answered the call to discipleship.

Here, you will be nourished by the Word of God, encounter the profound reality of the sacraments, and be guided by the teachings of Holy Mother Church.

This is not merely a program of instruction but a spiritual pilgrimage into the heart of the Church, where the saving love of Christ is made present. I encourage you, dear friends, to respond to this call with open hearts.

Whether you are discerning your place within the Church or have already begun to sense God's gentle invitation, the OCI offers a space of prayerful reflection and growth in faith.

What starts as a spark of curiosity may grow into the flame of a life lived in Christ.

May the Lord guide you as you seek to know Him more deeply, and may you find in the Church the true home of your soul.

For more information, please contact the parish office or me directly at OCI@Stjamesparish.org

Together, let us walk this sacred path toward Christ, the source of all truth and life.

Yours In Christ,

Ben Aranda, Director of OCI

Again we thank you in advance for your generosity in allowing us to keep our homeless community fed and healthy. ## We've Missed you!

Your church is open for prayer from 7am– 6pm daily.

Daily Masses are 8 am and 12 noon Monday-Friday with the rosary prayed immediately afterward.

Our Saturday daily Mass is at 8am and Sunday Vigil is at 5:30pm.

Receive the Eucharist; the true body and blood of Christ hidden in the form of a host.

In the Eucharist, and only in the Eucharist, he makes his body and blood present to us in a real way. This is why the sacramental presence of Christ's body and blood is so extraordinary. In all of the other sacraments, Jesus gives us his grace, says St. Thomas Aquinas, whereas in the Eucharist, the "sacrament of sacraments," he gives us his whole self, his divinity and his humanity. Call us if you are unable to attend so an Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist can bring Him to you.

Religious Education

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

Happy Third Sunday of Advent!

Thank you to our parish families who joined us for our two Advent Family Days of Service this month, a special way to prepare our hearts during Advent. As always, it is wonderful to help our children understand what it means to love our neighbor in concrete ways. Thanks, also, to Dr. Robin Potchka for her dedication to the Children's Christmas Choir and for leading the caroling again this year.

Children's Liturgy of the Word will be held next Sunday, December 22nd, at the 10am Mass. We look forward to seeing our parish children there to celebrate the Fourth Sunday of Advent.

Finally, we hope you have taken time to look at the Advent Resources listed on the main page of the parish website. There are some great resources for adults and for families, and we hope that they help you celebrate the season of Advent more fully. May you be aware of Emmanuel, God-with-us, as you keep watch this Advent season!

God bless!

Andrea Sullivan,

Director of Religious Education

O Come Let Us Adore Him

In its 3rd Joyful Mystery, the Holy Rosary finds us meditating on Mary's child wrapped in swaddling clothes laid in a manger, a nativity with no room at the inn.

Across the ages, that manger setting of our Savior has become what Pope Francis describes as

*"The place where the mystery of Christmas
'loves to hide.'*

*Awe and wonder are the two feelings that move everyone young and old before the Nativity scene, which is like a living Gospel
...an unspeakable joy."*

Q: What are some of the circumstances of the roots of the representative manger scene or crèche?

A: Sources state that a crèche is the same thing as a nativity scene:

"Crèche is a French word that also refers to a nursery or daycare center. Scripture accounts use the word "manger." Originally applying to just the baby Jesus, the word crèche now refers to the entire three-dimensional representation of the nativity setting."

Pope Francis spoke on the occasion marking the 800th anniversary of St. Francis of Assisi who is credited with putting together the first Christmas crèche in a cave in Italy in 1223. The Holy Father said that the Nativity scene "echoes the beauty of our faith."

Pope Benedict wrote:

"The crèche is a way to immerse oneself in God's presence..."

Luke 2 and Catechism #525 beautifully summarize the essence of that midnight clear and the lowly and magnificent nativity scene found under the star shining at the birth in Bethlehem:

"In this poverty heaven's glory was made manifest."

Sacramental Confession

No sin is new to him.

No wrongdoing too great.

Come to Confession and experience the cleansing power of God's love.

Saturday from 4-5 pm in Church or by calling the office for an appointment.

"Lord, wash away my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin."

On a bright Spring morning, a passerby once saw St. Francis of Assisi hoeing a row of beans and asked him,

"What would you be doing right now if you knew this was the last day of your earthly life?"

The Saint responded, "I'd keep hoeing this row of beans." Preparing for this world to end — whether by our death or by Jesus' glorious coming — invites us to live not in the past or the present, but deeply in the present moment.

This same point is on display in the simple advice given by the wild and eccentric John the Baptist. He speaks of the one who is to come who will baptize

"with the Holy Spirit and fire" (Luke 3:16).

Despite the bizarre awesomeness of this announcement, he tells his listeners to engage in the present moment with simple acts of justice and love as their preparation for Jesus' coming, sharing their clothes and food, eliminating greedy and underhanded practices, being content with their wages. It's so undramatic.

But how many actually did it? We don't know.

How many of us will commit ourselves to these types of humble and demanding practices in our lives?

That's what we should be doing now in our present moment, not worrying about the future.

Advent challenge: Name one way you are doing the bare minimum towards others in your daily life. Or name something you are doing because you are not content with your financial situation.

Pray: "Jesus, if it is your will, help me to stop doing these things this week. Help me prepare for your coming."

Then make the appropriate changes.

Offering Mass for a special intention is a long standing tradition in the Catholic Church. Special graces are obtained for whom the Mass is said. Masses are offered for many reasons, for special intentions, in remembrance for someone who is deceased, or in honor of a birthday or anniversary.

If you would like to have a Mass said for someone, please visit the Parish Office. We will help you with the dates and times which are available. We have Mass cards that you can send to whomever you choose as a remembrance. The monetary offering signifies the sacrificial nature of giving of something of yourself.
