Pastor's Letter

Hello Beautiful Children of God!

As we celebrate the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, when Mary & Joseph presented their child and made an offering to God for the gift of their child, let us be reminded that we too were made an offering to the Lord through Baptism. His grace poured out upon us that we may be joined to Him and share in His divine life. May our lives be our gift to Him who created us, that we would serve Him by our words and works.

We have a couple opportunities to draw closer to God in the coming weeks with the Encounter Conference (Feb 27th-Mar 1st) and the Cornerstone Women's Retreat (March 14th & 15th). These are wonderful opportunities to allow God to speak to our hearts and invite us to serve Him. Please prayerfully discern your participation in these spiritually enriching events.

There are also two chances to serve others through a donation to Together in Mission and/or the Wildfire Victims Assistance Fund. Both charities help our most vulnerable brothers and sisters in the Archdiocese. Together in Mission helps underfunded parishes and schools meet their most immediate needs while contributions to the Wildfire Fund offers help to families who lost their homes in the recent fires.

Another aspect of evangelization is the gift of Catholic education. As we come to the end of Catholic Schools Week, I ask you to please keep our beautiful St James School in prayer as we lead the children entrusted to our care to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Enrollment at the school is underway, so please let families with elementary school-aged children know about our wonderful school and provide them with a robust, faith-based education. Any interested families can set up a visit by calling the school office at 310.371.0416. We would love to add to our school family in the coming years!

God bless,

Fr Matt

Saint Blaise
Blessing of the Throats
Mon., Feb. 3rd at the 8am and noon Masses

Prayer to St. Blaise

*I promise you, St Blaise, that the words coming from my mouth will always speak: The truth and not lies; justice and not calumnies; goodness and not harshness; comprehension and not Intransigence; forgiveness and not condemnation; pardon and not accusation; respect and not disparagement. Conciliation and not intrigue; calmness and not irritation; unselfishness and not egotism; edification and not scandal; enthusiasm and not defeatism;
conformity and not complaint; love and not hate; joyfulness and not sadness; faith and not disbelief; hope and not despair. St Blaise, keep my throat free from illness so that I can praise God, my Creator, and thank you, my protector.
Amen.*

Blaise was named bishop of Sebaste, Armenia, and very popular among his contemporaries for performing numerous miraculous healings. He lived as a hermit even after being named bishop, converting the cave in which he lived — located in the forest of Mount Argeus — into his episcopal see.

Tradition has it that one day Bishop Blaise saved a child who had choked on a fish bone — hence the ancient custom of blessing the throats of his devotees on his feast day. That same fact also made him the patron saint of otorhinolaryngologists and those who suffer from throat ailments.

Other stories speak of Blaise's love for animals, whom he also cured. According to an ancient medieval tale, sick or injured animals came to his cave on Mount Argeus to be cured and in return, they did not harm him or bother him when he prayed.

Blaise's life and ministry ended when Agricola, governor of Cappadocia, initiated one of the last persecutions against Christians. When a group of his hunters went to look for animals in the forest of Argeus for some "games," they found many of them grouped outside the cave of St. Blaise. The saint was praying at the time and was taken prisoner.

Placed in the presence of Agricola, he was told to renounce the Christian faith, but he flatly refused the proposal. He was immediately locked up in a dungeon, where he remained for some days preaching among the captives and those condemned to death. There, he also cured the sick and baptized those who wanted to become Christians.

According to the Acts of St. Blaise, the hermit bishop was condemned to die by drowning but, when he was thrown into the waters, he began to walk on them, as Jesus Christ himself once did. He was then led to the scaffold, tortured, and finally beheaded. He died a martyr in 316 A.D., in the time of the Roman emperor Licinius.

OCI Invitation

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I extend to you an invitation to embark on a journey of faith and discovery in the sacred mystery of Christ's Church.

The Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCI) offers a path of encounter with the living God, who calls each of us to communion with Him through the sacraments and the fullness of truth found in the Catholic Church.

In these times, when many seek answers to life's deepest questions, the Church stands as a beacon of light, offering the eternal wisdom of Christ's Gospel and the rich heritage of faith handed down through the ages.

To those who are drawn to know Christ more fully and to enter into the life of the Church, the OCI is a place of grace where you will be accompanied by fellow parishioners who have already answered the call to discipleship.

Here, you will be nourished by the Word of God, encounter the profound reality of the sacraments, and be guided by the teachings of Holy Mother Church.

This is not merely a program of instruction but a spiritual pilgrimage into the heart of the Church, where the saving love of Christ is made present. I encourage you, dear friends, to respond to this call with open hearts.

Whether you are discerning your place within the Church or have already begun to sense God's gentle invitation, the OCI offers a space of prayerful reflection and growth in faith.

What starts as a spark of curiosity may grow into the flame of a life lived in Christ.

May the Lord guide you as you seek to know Him more deeply, and may you find in the Church the true home of your soul.

For more information, please contact the parish office or me directly at OCI@Stjamesparish.org

Together, let us walk this sacred path toward Christ, the source of all truth and life.

Yours In Christ,

Ben Aranda, Director of OCI

Meets every Saturday at 9:30am in Room 6 of the Parish Center

I encourage you, my dear brothers and sisters in Christ, to deepen your devotion to our blessed Mother Mary as Legionaries. We hope you consider becoming a member and join us!

The worldwide Legion of Mary has been called "a miracle of these modern times."

Cardinal Suenens wrote: "Today, two currents dominate the life of the Church: the Marian current and the apostolic current." These two currents meet and blend harmoniously in the Legion of Mary, which has been a providential instrument in the hands of Mary and the Church for the spread of the Kingdom of God on earth.

Thank You from the Feed the Needy Ministry

The Feed the Needy ministry wants to thank all those who have contributed to us in the last year.

In 2024 we served approximately 7,500 meals and we could not have done this without the assistance of several of our parishioners. This is in addition to all of the wonderful contributions at Christmas. Your kindness and generosity have made the difference! These individuals have gone over and beyond to assist the ministry in serving our homeless community. A warm Thank You from all of us in the ministry!
Linda Cabbibo, Ministry Coordinator

Would You Like to Complete Your Sacraments?

Are you a baptized Catholic, but have not yet received the Sacrament of Confirmation? If so, contact us about becoming a candidate to complete your Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation). If you have not received your First Holy Communion, this class will prepare you to do that as well.

To receive further information and details on this process, please contact Deacon Bob & Patty Miller at dnbob99@gmail.com or call us at 310.386.2930. If you know of someone who may benefit from this process, please feel free to pass this information along to them.

Feed the Needy Ministry

We thank you for all your donations! We continue this year of providing meals on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. Because of your generosity, we have continued to feed our homeless community throughout the year.

Our work continues and we once again ask for your assistance to ensure that we maintain the items needed for our homeless community members. We always need the following items:

hamburger buns cheese sticks fruit (oranges, bananas & grapes)
chips granola bars
lunch meat & cheese 8 oz. water and juices

In addition to the food items we are in need of toiletries and socks. We are unable to accept used clothing.

Again we thank you in advance for your generosity in allowing us to keep our homeless community fed and healthy.

If you have any questions regarding our ministry I can be reached at 310.488.9480.

LA Youth Day

Thursday, February 20th

It's a busy time for us here in Youth Ministry!

Planning has officially started for our upcoming Year 2 weekend retreat taking place March 28th-30th. We are expecting a group of over 200 people - our biggest retreat yet! It's an exciting time for our team as we allow the Holy Spirit to move through us in these planning stages.

We also have a group of 55 teens and chaperones attending LA Youth Day at the Anaheim Convention Center on Thursday, February 20th. Youth Day is an annual event hosted by the Archdiocese of LA where thousands of teens throughout our city gather for worship, interactive workshops & liturgy. In addition, we also have 8 teen volunteers from our parish that will be working behind the scenes to help gather & lead this event. Our young church is truly alive here at St. James!

If you have any questions on joining our team or any future youth ministry events, please feel free to contact us at the information provided below.

I have enjoyed serving in many Catholic parish ministries. I have found that Cornerstone stands out among them as the one in which men can share the personal ways we have followed Jesus Christ and sought to apply His gospel in our lives.

The relationships and community I have realized through Cornerstone have encouraged me tremendously in my Christian faith.

Good Morning, my dear beautiful sisters,

I want to thank you for such a beautiful retreat. What a way to share 26 hours of Love, Faith, Courage, Determination, Prayer, Peace. I believe our Lord and our amazing sisters personally prepared for us. I've spend the most amazing 26 hours with God and each of you ladies.

Thank you, thank you, thank you for making me feel special and loved. I can't even believe everything that happened there, so special with all the beautiful, meticulous preparation by our sisters.

Oh, My Lord. All I can say is thank you again for creating beautiful memories, new family, and to know that I am not alone. I have family, more sisters and most of all our Lord was present with us every single minute, guiding us and letting us know that we are important, that He can fix everything if only we believe in Him.

Dear sisters, please know that I am just a phone call away if anyone needs anything.

Thank you, Lord. Thank you, Jesus Christ. I love you with all my heart.

Sound Words

January 26th marked the Feast Day of first century evangelist, Bishop and martyr - St. Timothy.

Q: What sage advice did St. Paul have for Timothy?

A: Among the Lives of the Saints, Reverend Alban Butler relates Paul's personal instructions to his protégé, Timothy:

"Hold to the form of sound words...
Attende lectioni - apply thyself to reading."

Celebrating the Sunday of the Word of God, Vatican News reports that Pope Francis urged all Christians to carry a pocket Bible and read a few verses everyday.

St. Augustine wrote, "He who wishes often to be with God ought to pray frequently and read pious books."

The United States Conference Of Catholic Bishops designates spiritual reading, especially the Gospels as an important form of meditation. This spiritual reading is traditionally called lectio divina or divine reading. The Bishops recommend, as part of this lectio, to apply the following methodology with holy scripture:

1. Read a short passage from the Bible carefully, perhaps three or four times, letting it soak in.
2. Meditate on what you've read. Imagine the setting, "see" the people and the unfolding action.
3. Prayer is the next element, asking for graces, offering praise and thanksgiving and seeking forgiveness.
4. Contemplation, which the Bishops describe as "a gaze turned toward Christ and the things of God."

In augmenting our lectio, there are any number of potential reading lists we could construct to attend to what Paul called "sound words and holy reading."

A suggested list of these could include:

On the Consecrated Life, by Pope John Paul II
The Catechism of the Catholic Church
The Story of a Soul by St. Therese Confessions by St. Augustine
The Book of Pastoral Rule by Pope St. Gregory the Great Butler's Lives of the Saints by Rev. Alban Butler
The Art of Living by Dr. Sri, the virtuous book
 St. James parishioners were gifted can also help to, as the Bishops said
 "...turn our gaze toward Jesus and the things of God."

Attende lectioni

It's normal to grieve a pregnancy loss, including the loss of a child by abortion.

It can form a hole in one's heart, a hole so deep that sometimes it seems nothing can fill the emptiness. You are not alone... hopeafterabortion.com/

What is the secret to sharing in God's power to overcome our difficulties?

Mary teaches us this in the prophecy of her pierced heart. This Sunday, the old man Simeon prophecies that when her son faces opposition, Mary's soul will be pierced by a sword. The seemingly pointless agony of a mother helplessly watching her son be mocked, tortured, killed and then cruelly desecrated in death by a spear — somehow this piercing of her heart releases a power by which "the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed"

(Luke 2:35). What to make of this?

Whatever problems we currently face, the deepest threat is finally that evil thoughts are hidden in the human heart: hatred, envy, pride, lust, greed and so on.

Behind every tyrant's injustice, for example, is a heart unpierced by love. Evil hides in our hearts. Mary's pierced heart, and its suffering love for her son, reveals and scatters these evil thoughts, and replaces them with love, forgiveness, generosity and peace.

This week, I invite us to ponder Mary's pierced heart.

Her heart is quietly at work for us in the Church and world, exposing our evil thoughts and making a path for her son's divine love.

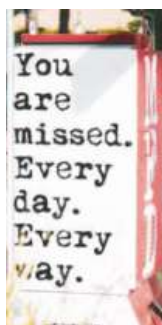

This is how she gently cooperates in our salvation.

Closed hearts are our biggest problem;
 love-pierced hearts are the ultimate power to overcome every difficulty.

We've Missed you!

Your church is open for prayer from 7am– 6pm daily.

Daily Masses are 8 am and 12 noon Monday-Friday with the rosary prayed immediately afterward. Our Saturday daily Mass is at 8am and Sunday Vigil is at 5:30pm.

Receive the Eucharist; the true body and blood of Christ hidden in the form of a host.

In the Eucharist, and only in the Eucharist, he makes his body and blood present to us in a real way. This is why the sacramental presence of Christ's body and blood is so extraordinary. In all of the other sacraments, Jesus gives us his grace, says St. Thomas Aquinas, whereas in the Eucharist, the "sacrament of sacraments," he gives us his whole self, his divinity and his humanity. Call us if you are unable to attend so an Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist can bring Him to you. Mass Intentions Offering Mass for a special intention is a long standing tradition in the Catholic Church. Special graces are obtained for whom the Mass is said.

If you would like to have a Mass said for someone, please visit the Parish Office. We will help you with the dates and times which are available. We have Mass cards that you can send to whomever you choose as a remembrance. The monetary offering signifies the sacrificial nature of giving of something of yourself.
