March 16, 2025 | 2nd Sunday of Lent | Love God. Love all People. Make Disciples.

Welcome!

THANK YOU FOR WORSHIPPING WITH US!
WE ARE NOT COMPLETE WITHOUT YOU!

Luke 9:28b-36

As they were about to part from him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good that we are here; let us make three tents, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." But he did not know what he was saying. While he was still speaking, a cloud came and cast a shadow over them, and they became frightened when they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my chosen Son; listen to him." After the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. They fell silent and did not at that time tell anyone what they had seen.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Hello beautiful children of God!

On this Second Sunday of Lent (Year C), we hear the story of the Transfiguration from the Gospel of Luke. Jesus takes his "inner circle" (Peter, James, and John) up Mount Tabor where he reveals his divine nature to the disciples and so unveils the glory of the kingdom to come. Appearing on either side of Jesus are Elijah and Moses, representing the prophets and the law of the Israelite people. These two Old Testament figures longed to look on the face of God, as so their deepest longing is fulfilled as they gaze upon the face of Jesus and testify to His divinity.

We hear at the completion of this Gospel passage that a voice came from heaven, saying "this is my chosen Son, listen to him." This command once again evokes the prophets and law; "here is...my chosen" (Isa 42:1 – Prophets) and "to him you shall listen." (Deut 18:15 – Torah). The scene of the Transfiguration leaves no doubt that Jesus is the Son of God, and his disciples would soon realize the meaning of this remarkable revelation, that we too would share in his glory. There is no doubt that this revelation inspired the Apostles to preach the Gospel truth as they built up the Body of Christ on earth.

This Gospel invites us to listen to the voice of God in our own hearts. Take time each day to encounter Him in the silence so that the still, small voice of our Lord can direct our wavering hearts. I pray that you will find rest in Him during this season of intense prayer.

PROPERTY UPDATE: The appeal period has ended without opposition, so the property at 124 N. PCH is now sold. Once the sale closes, we'll pay off the loan on the Community Campus and make plans for our future parish center on that property. I will keep the community updated as we proceed forward. Thank you for your prayers!

God bless,

Fr Matt Murphy

DID YOU KNOW?

Working through discomfort around abuse disclosures

As safe adults, we want to be available for the children in our lives to share their worries and fears with us. However, it is natural to be uncomfortable if a child discloses abuse or mistreatment. Asking necessary questions and getting pertinent information is critical to stopping abusive scenarios, although this can be difficult it is important to remember our critical role as safe adults. We are protectors of the children in our lives and we have the power to stop abuse from happening. This always needs to be the priority, over discomfort and uncertainty. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "Superpowers: Safe Adults Have Them" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

Shining Stars

JEAN BUNGARDEN LEE

Jean Lee is a lifelong member of St James Parish, her parents joining the parish when they moved to Torrance in 1956. She along with her 4 siblings - Mary Ann, Jack, Robert and Richard- grew up around the St James since their parents were very active in the affairs of the Church and the school. On Sundays, Jean could be found at Mass with her family, but she also helped her father with the behind the scenes activities that kept the church running.

She attended St James School from 1st to 8th grade, often being drafted by her dad to help with the many maintenance activities that he managed in his spare moments. Often, when her dad was attending to some issue or another at the school or the convent, he also received an update on whatever Jean had been doing at school. While being one of Dick Bungarden's kids is a source of pride for Jean and her siblings, there was that visibility, plus more opportunities to clean and carry stuff when dad needed "help."

The commitment and caring exemplified by her teachers at Saint James must have made a good impression on Jean. She went on to become a special education teacher and administrator for the Los Angeles Unified School District, a career that spanned more than three decades. Her consistent support of the parish included helping run the food booths for the Harvest Festival and volunteering at St James School while her daughter Nicole attended. Jean's contributions to the parish have included, in recent years, being a Board Member of the St James School Education Foundation. She, along with the rest of the Board take an active interest in continuing and supporting the excellent educational activities at the school. You can find her still at the Harvest Festival selling tickets for the "beverage cart" and helping out wherever she can. She is the kind of volunteer that just gets the work done and doesn't care who gets the credit. In fact, her family reports that she is a little embarrassed by all of this since she would rather stay in the background and just "do the work".

Jean and her husband Don still live in Torrance and she is very proud of her daughter Nicole, another St James graduate, as well as her step sons Devin, his wife Karly, Andrew and Zachary (and, her true favorite, "Mojo" the dog).

Jean is the person you want to have on your team, she just gets the job done with a smile and love!

THE ORDER OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION (OCI)

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I extend to you an invitation to embark on a journey of faith and discovery in the sacred mystery of Christ's Church.

The Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCI) offers a path of encounter with the living God, who calls each of us to communion with Him through the sacraments and the fullness of truth found in the Catholic Church.

In these times, when many seek answers to life's deepest questions, the Church stands as a beacon of light, offering the eternal wisdom of Christ's Gospel and the rich heritage of faith handed down through the ages.

To those who are drawn to know Christ more fully and to enter into the life of the Church, the OCI is a place of grace where you will be accompanied by fellow parishioners who have already answered the call to discipleship.

Here, you will be nourished by the Word of God, encounter the profound reality of the sacraments, and be guided by the teachings of Holy Mother Church.

This is not merely a program of instruction but a spiritual pilgrimage into the heart of the Church, where the saving love of Christ is made present. I encourage you, dear friends, to respond to this call with open hearts.

Whether you are discerning your place within the Church or have already begun to sense God's gentle invitation, the OCI offers a space of prayerful reflection and growth in faith.

What starts as a spark of curiosity may grow into the flame of a life lived in Christ.

May the Lord guide you as you seek to know Him more deeply, and may you find in the Church the true home of your soul.

For more information, please contact the parish office or me directly at OCI@Stjamesparish.org

Together, let us walk this sacred path toward Christ, the source of all truth and life.

Yours In Christ,

Ben Aranda,
Director of OCI

I encourage you, my dear brothers and sisters in Christ, to deepen your devotion to our blessed Mother Mary as Legionaries. We hope you consider becoming a member and join us!

Cardinal Suenens wrote: "Today, two currents dominate the life of the Church: the Marian current and the apostolic current." These two currents meet and blend harmoniously in the Legion of Mary, which has been a providential instrument in the hands of Mary and the Church for the spread of the Kingdom of God on earth.

CATHOLIC Q & A

J.P. ALEGRIA

LENT: DEUS IBI EST

After an examination of conscience, a penitent confessed about a week in which loving one's neighbor by being non-judgmental had been a commitment, unmet.

Q: Father, how can one more faithfully internalize and put into practice the moral imperative reflected in those passages in the Holy Bible from Matthew, Luke, and John, when Jesus says to his disciples: "Judge not, lest ye be judged?"

A: The Priest responded in terms of the practical, merciful, and wholly charitable means of recognizing the face of Jesus in one another. Similarly, in an Angelus Address in 2021 Pope Francis said:

"Let us ask for the grace to overcome temptation to judge and to categorize. Christians must be on guard and avoid the temptation of thinking themselves better than others, an attitude that risks turning the church into a place of separation and not communion. Pray for others instead of judging them."

Pope John Paul II taught that "People should not judge others based on their sins, but instead recognize them as children of God...Try to understand others' words and actions in a positive way."

An antiphonal response in the Roman Missal seems to underscore the charitable, non-judgmental heart:

"Ubi caritas est vera. Deus ibi est." From Latin to English: "Where true charity is, God is there."

Finally, consider these words about judging: "Instead of putting others in their place, put yourself in their place."
